

Par Singh

LANXESS AG
Corporate Communications

Page 1 of 1

Par Singh was born in India in 1960. He studied chemical engineering at the Osmania University, Hyderabad, India, obtaining a bachelor degree in 1983 and attended the Management Course from University of Michigan, USA.

He started his career with Bharat Petroleum (formerly Shell) in Mumbai, India, in 1983. Singh then worked with LyondellBasell and predecessor companies Himont, Montell & Basell since 1988 in the USA and Europe in various leadership positions, with global responsibilities in manufacturing, project management and licensing. He most recently served as Senior Vice President Manufacturing Europe, Asia & International Region at LyondellBasell based in Germany and was Member of the LyondellBasell Management team.

Par Singh joined LANXESS as Country Representative for Singapore in September 2013. Since May 2014, he is head of the group function Innovation & Technology.

Singh is married and has two children.

Cologne, August 2014